Finally!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Great news Aram!

Will there be enough dirt “churned”

If the contractor is starting on October 3, the 1st step will be mostly saw cutting the asphalt.

I would like to take the pictures right after the asphalt has been removed.

If that day is Oct 5, then let’s do the pictures on that day.

Can you find out if asphalt will have been removed by Oct 5?

Hi Folks,

Looks like work is going to actually start October 3rd and the "contractor scheduled" the groundbreaking for Wednesday, October 5th. But, I assume we can do it on another day that week if necessary.

What do we need to proceed with the event?
